Attorneys for Plaintiff Eon-Net, L.P.

EON-NET, L.P.

Plaintiff,

v.

US AIRWAYS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, Eon-Net, L.P., a limited partnership (hereinafter referred to as "Eon-Net"), demands a jury trial and complains against the defendant as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Eon-Net is a limited partnership organized and existing under the laws of the British Virgin Islands, with its principal place of business at P.O. Box 116, Road Town, Tortola, British Virgin Islands.

2. Upon information and belief, US Airways, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant" or "US Airways") is a business organized and existing under the laws of the State of Arizona, having a place of business at Newark Liberty International Airport, Terminal A, Newark, New Jersey 07114. US Airways operates approximately 3,700 flights per day and serves more than 230 communities in the U.S., Canada, Europe, the Caribbean and Latin America.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This action arises under the patent laws of the United States of America, Title 35 of the United States Code. This Court has jurisdiction of this action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

4. Upon information and belief, Defendant is doing business and committing infringements in this judicial district and is subject to personal jurisdiction in this judicial district.

5. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b).

CLAIM FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

6. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, repeats and incorporates herein the entirety of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 5 above.

7. On January 27, 2004, U.S. Patent No. 6,683,697 (hereinafter referred to as “the ‘697 patent”) was duly and legally issued to Millennium, L.P. (“Millennium”) for an invention entitled “Information Processing Methodology.” On October 14, 2004, Millennium assigned the ‘697 patent to Eon-Net. A Certificate of Correction to the ‘697 patent issued on July 26, 2005. A copy of the ‘697 patent and the Certificate of Correction are attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 1.

8. Eon-Net is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the ‘697 patent.

9. On July 11, 2006, U.S. Patent No. 7,075,673 (hereinafter referred to as “the ‘673 patent”) was duly and legally issued to Eon-Net for an invention entitled “Information Processing Methodology.” A copy of the ‘673 patent is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 2.

10. Eon-Net is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the ‘673 patent.

11. On February 27, 2007, U.S. Patent No. 7,184,162 (hereinafter referred to as “the ‘162 patent”) was duly and legally issued to Eon-Net for an invention entitled “Information Processing Methodology.” A copy of the ‘162 patent is attached to this Complaint as Exhibit 3.

12. Eon-Net is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the ‘162 patent.

COUNT ONE

13. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, repeats and incorporates herein the entirety of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 12 above.

14. NWA has for a long time past and still is infringing, actively inducing the infringement of and/or contributorily infringing in this judicial district, the '697 patent by, among other things, operating a website at www.usairways.com ("the US Airways Website") pursuant to a claim of the '697 patent, without permission from Eon-Net, in which information entered by a US Airways customer into a web page displayed on the browser of the customer's computer is extracted according to content instructions and transmitted to an application program operating on Defendant's web server according to customizable transmission format instructions in a manner defined by the claims of the '697 patent. For example, a US Airways customer seeking to book a flight can enter information including the city, date and time of the departing flight, and the city, date and time of the return flight into HTML form elements displayed on the web page found at <http://www.usairways.com/awa/?redir=http://www.google.com/search> of the US Airways Website. The foregoing information entered into the HTML document is extracted by the browser and transmitted to an application program running on the US Airways web server for processing the customer's order in a POST format and using an https protocol required by the application program.

15. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, has been damaged by such infringing activities by the Defendant of the '697 patent and will be irreparably harmed unless such infringing activities are enjoined by this Court.

COUNT TWO

16. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, repeats and incorporates herein the entirety of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 15 above.

17. US Airways has for a long time past and still is infringing, actively inducing the infringement of and/or contributorily infringing in this judicial district, the '673 patent by, among

1 other things, operating the US Airways Website pursuant to a claim of the '673 patent, without
2 permission from Eon-Net, in which information entered by a customer of Defendant into an
3 electronic document template displayed on the browser of the customer's computer is extracted
4 according to content instructions and transmitted to an application program operating on
5 Defendant's web server according to customizable transmission format instructions in a manner
6 defined by the claims of the '673 patent. For example, a US Airways customer seeking to book a
7 flight can enter information including the city, date and time of the departing flight, and the city,
8 date and time of the return flight into HTML form elements displayed on the web page found at 9 <http://www.usairways.com/awa/?redir=http://www.google.com/search> of the US Airways Website. The 10 foregoing information entered into the HTML document is extracted by the browser and transmitted
11 to an application program running on the US Airways web server for processing the customer's
12 order in a POST format and using an https protocol required by the application program.

14 18. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, has been damaged by such infringing activities by the Defendant
15 of the '673 patent and will be irreparably harmed unless such infringing activities are enjoined by 16 this Court.

17 COUNT THREE

18 19. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, repeats and incorporates herein the entirety of the allegations
19 contained in paragraphs 1 through 18 above.

20 20. US Airways has for a long time past and still is infringing, actively inducing the 21 infringement of and/or contributorily infringing in this judicial district, the '162 patent by, among
22 other things, operating the US Airways Website pursuant to a claim of the '162 patent, without
23 permission from Eon-Net, in which information entered by a customer of Defendant into an
24 electronic document template displayed on the browser of the customer's computer is extracted
25 according to content instructions and transmitted to an application program operating on
26 Defendant's web server according to customizable transmission format instructions in a manner
27

defined by the claims of the '162 patent. For example, a US Airways customer seeking to book a flight can enter information including the city, date and time of the departing flight, and the city, date and time of the return flight into HTML form elements displayed on the web page found at <http://www.usairways.com/awa/?redir=http://www.google.com/search> of the US Airways Website. The foregoing information entered into the HTML document is extracted by the browser and transmitted to an application program running on the US Airways web server for processing the customer's order in a POST format and using an https protocol required by the application program.

21. Plaintiff, Eon-Net, has been damaged by such infringing activities by the Defendant of the '162 patent and will be irreparably harmed unless such infringing activities are enjoined by this Court.
